

Curriculum Vitae - Marta Hidegkuti

Personal born on June 21, 1973 in Budapest, Hungary

Education

University of Illinois at Chicago; M.S. in Mathematics	1999
University of Illinois at Chicago; B.S. Mathematics,	1998
ELTE University (Eötvös Loránd Tudományegyetem) majors: Mathematics; Hungarian and World Literature	1991-1996

Additional Education

Passed the First Actuarial Exam; (Scored 9)	May 2002
---	----------

Professional Experience

Harry S Truman College, Department of Mathematics Faculty	Aug 2005 – present
Adjunct Faculty	Aug 2002 - July 2005
Truman Middle College High School Part-Time Faculty	Nov 2001 – Aug 2004
ITT Technical Institute Part-Time Faculty	June 2004 – Nov 2005
Columbia College, Chicago Part-Time Faculty	Sept 2004 – June 2005
University of Illinois at Chicago Teaching Assistant	Aug 1998 – Feb 2001
ELTE University Student Foundation, Budapest, Hungary Instructor	Sept 1992 – June 1995

Other Professional Experience

Translator	1992
-------------------	------

Translated from English to Hungarian, a book of mathematical puzzles and problems;
Baker Street Puzzles; by Tom Bullimore; Ravette Books Ltd., 1992

Skills

Languages: perfect Hungarian, basic German
Computer: Web Design, programming in C, scripting in LaTeX and Scientific WorkPlace

Honors and Awards

1998-99, UIC University Pre-doctoral Fellowship
1998, College Honors and Highest Distinction in Mathematics
1997, Kathy Hill Cawthon Memorial Award (outstanding female math undergraduate)

Other Interests painting, playing guitar, puzzles and mathematical games, sudoku, go, chess and other strategy games